TO-DAY the Treasury Department, through Commissioner W. H. Pugh, issues advance instructions to the Government officials for the collection of the income tax.

Strenuous efforts will be made to raise twenty million dollars from this source during the first year and great care will be taken that no taxable income escapes.

The way to raise money is to save it. "A dollar saved is a dollar made." You had better act on this little quotation and invest in one of our $18.00 suits. By so doing you will save $7 to $12. Isn't this enough to convince you?

STEALING A MARCH

PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE TAKE TIME BY THE FORELOCK.

They Go Privately by Night to the United States District Judge and Secure a Restraining Order, Claiming Their Right to the Cumulative Voting Plan.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 25.—A very important action was taken during the night in connection with the Santa Fe election. N. W. man Erb and General B. F. Tracy, acting for the protective reorganization committee, went before Judge C. G. Foster of the United States district court and asked for an order restraining stockholders from electing directors until, until the court should decide whether or not the cumulative plan of voting could be exercised. Judge Foster granted a temporary restraining order conditionally. That is, he said the meeting could proceed if the cumulative plan of voting were exercised, otherwise not, and in this event he would set the hearing on the temporary restraining order for Monday, Oct. 29th.

Under cover of darkness and in a closed carriage the distinguished ex-secretary of the navy, General Grace and fellow representatives of the protectives had hastened to Judge Foster's residence. So quietly was their mission performed that little of a disturbance looked out till the day for the meeting dawned and the many thousands of shares were being tended together by the directors' committee for the purpose of exercising their plan at this morning's annual meeting of the stockholders, as already fully outlined. The protectives thus scored the first touch of the Albatross election, which may take place before making another move. They felt for the time being that they had outwitted the N. J. jury.

At 10 o'clock sharp the room of General Manager Fry in the Santa Fe general office building was packed with the representatives of the opposing interests. Vice President of the company, the directors were seated at the table coming the injunction papers that had been served. In a few minutes Mr. Robinson, the president of the company, was introduced. Secretary Wilder read the call and immediately thereafter Mr. Robinson announced as the committee had done previous and see who was entitled to vote. Charles Blood Smith, James Walker and George W. Foster, Newman Erb, immediately jumped to their feet and strongly objected because the protective committee was not represented and moved that Henry Wollman of Kansas City be added. A dozen tried to get the chairman's attention after the motion was seconded. Meanwhile Director Givens moved to adjourn till 2 o'clock. The motion to add Wollman finally carried and a jury was named was taken, the committee on proxies to report at the afternoon hour of meeting.

Considerable bitterness was displayed over the election of chairman, the protectives claiming that the rules required the vice president to preside. The directors' committee showed that Vice President Robinson was elected by the stockholders, and that under similar circumstances a chairman could be elected. Newman Erb furnished a receipt in the Federal court to be asked to appoint a committee to investigate the company's affairs and report to the stockholders within thirty days. This resolution was carried and the passing of the pending motion to adjourn by Director Givens.

B. F. Cheney Jr., of Boston, the representative of the N. J. shareholders, said the largest individual stockholder, said the present board would concede nothing to the protective committee.

"This injunction," he said, "is undoubtedly sprung to compel us to give representation on the board to them, but it will not do it. We will not compromise or make concessions to them."

By far the most important point from a railroad standpoint that has developed so far is that the general committee, if it wins this fight, will make B. F. Cheney Jr., chairman of the board. This is the highest executive position on a railroad and is always held by men of high social standing. Corbin Vanderbilt is chairman of the New York Central board—an officer higher than the presidency, held by Chesapeake M. Depue.

CLAIMING LEGAL RIGHTS.

What the Cumulative Voting Law Is and How It Works.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 25.—The petition for the injunction was filed by Benjamin F. Tracy and Newman Erb, of New York, Henry Wollman, of Kansas City, Williams & Dillon, of Topeka, all solicitors for William Palmer Smith, of New Jersey, complainant. The defendants are the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe company, of Kansas, D. B. Robinson, of Chicago, the president, Edward Wilder, of Topeka, secretary, and L. Sever, of Topeka, C. S. Givens and Cyrus K. Holliday, of Topeka, Edward J. B. Wind, of Philadelphia, Samuel C. Lawrence, George A. Nickerson, Alden Spence and R. P. Cheney Jr., of Boston, and Thomas P. Fowler, William L. Bull, John A. McCall, James A. Blair and F. K. Sturgis, of New York, all directors.

The petition sets forth that in 1876 the Kansas legislature passed the cumulative voting law, giving to holders of stock in the Santa Fe the right to cast all their votes for one director; that is, the number of votes to be cast on account of each share of stock to be multiplied by the number of directors to be elected; and all of such votes given for one director; that the law was amended in 1881 as follows:

"In all elections for directors or trustees of any incorporated company each shareholder shall have the right to cast as many votes in the aggregate as shall equal the number of shares so held by him. He may, however, in his company multiplied by the number of directors or trustees to be elected at election, and each shareholder may cast the whole number of votes either in person or by proxy for one candidate and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner."

The petition then says: "All of said defendants deny to your orator the right to vote his stock in accordance with the law, and to the above copied, and your orator fears that said defendants, not named will control the majority of stock at said meeting, and by reason thereof will be in control of said meeting and election. And your orator further states that said defendants have conspired together for the purpose of preventing your orator from voting his said stock in the manner in law and as prescribed by said statutes above set forth, and your orator further states that said defendants have conspired to prevent the said defendant last named shall have the majority of said stock and shall be able to vote the same at said meeting, as claimed by said defendants, that then your orator will be deprived of said rights under the said statutes unless said defendants are restrained and enjoined by the order of this honorable court."

It is asked that Directors Berwind, Bull, Givens, Lawrence, Blair, Cheney, Fowler, McCall and Sturgis were never elected by the stockholders, but placed in office through the resignation of former directors and have combined and conspired for the purpose of perpetrating themselves in office.

WAITING ON THE SANTA FE.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 25.—The meeting of the stockholders of the St. Louis and San Francisco railway, which was to have been held at the company's office in this city, was postponed until next Tuesday. This action was taken to await the results of the Albatross election, which may take place at Topeka, Kan., next Thursday.

JUDOS BY THE EVENT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The Illinois Central road, which effected its sale of $200,000 to Chicago to the Pacific coast via N. W. Orleans. This action clearly puts the Illinois Central in contempt of the agreement of Western Passenger association, but there is a tacit understanding that the association will allow the rate to stand until it is demonstrated whether or not it will lead to disorganization of the business of the other association lines.

WELLINGTON ENTERTAINERS.

Activities of the A. O. U. W. Bring Her out in Holiday Attire.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Oct. 25.—Today is the twenty-sixth anniversary of the central Kansas district A. O. U. W. This is truly an A. O. U. W. day for Wellington, and she has literally covered herself in bunting and flags. The business houses have been with each other in a contest of bunting and flags. There is a great display of bunting and flags in the city. The business houses have been with each other in a contest of bunting and flags. There is a great display of bunting and flags in the city.

Why the Wellington Opera House Was Packed and the Wigwam Waned.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Oct. 25.—It is said that on Tuesday night of this week, at the same time that Hon. J. W. Ady was here in the opera house, that Hon. (or R. H.) Kelly, state senator, who had been telegraphed for, came but would not speak as he was on his way to the city. He was in the city. He was in the city. He was in the city.

CHARGED IN COURT.

Lacey, of Iowa, Accused of Murder While Testifying Against His Wife.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 25.—While testifying in court against his wife in a divorce suit, in which was sought separation, William Lacey, of Iowa, was today arrested, charged with the murder of that place last August, of Wm. M. Cummings. According to Mrs. Lacey's story her husband had twice threatened to take her life, and for this reason she wanted a divorce. Lacey was on the stand testifying against her when Mrs. Lacey suddenly sprang to her feet and declared him to be a murderer. She said she saw him shoot her husband. Lacey was charged with the murder of Cummings. The murder was committed at the time of the divorce suit.

INGALLS AT REEFINGHAM.

FROM ACQUA CREEK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—L. C. W. presided of the Adams Express company, reported a paper today containing a number of bonds, insurance policies, stocks, drafts and other valuable documents. These papers were stolen from the company's safe in the express car on the 12th. The recovery of these documents reduces the loss of the Adams Express company to less than $10,000.

SET BY A SMOKER

NEBRASKA FIRES DUE TO A MAN LIGHTING HIS PIPE

Threw the Match in the Grass, Starting the Most Destructive Fire Ever Known in That Region—Wind Sixty Miles an Hour—Enormous Property Loss—Fatalities.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 25.—A special to the Bee from Hyattsville, Neb., says: This week has been a cruel one in a large portion of the sand hills. Destructive fires swept through the western part of Cherry and Grant counties, burning on the north side of the Burlington and Missouri River track to within about four miles of Hyattsville. Lashed on by a furious wind the fires traveled at a pace that carried destruction as well as destruction. The fire north of the railroad was set the first of the week by a man and his pipe about ten miles northwest of Alliance. The man was full and in filling and lighting his pipe threw the burning match on a grassy spot. It ignited the grass. In an instant a fire started which, fanned by the north-wind, at once set out on its mission of destruction. Specific reports of damage done on the ranches of some of the sufferers are not in yet. Those having news are as follows: Barrett, Richards, 1,500 tons; Marquette, 350 tons; Jones, 100 tons; West, 100 tons; H. Woodruff, 600 tons; Seabrook Brothers, 1,000 tons; J. H. Miller, 1,000 tons; Marston Brothers, 1,300 tons and large.

It is reported that two men were burned at Mullin, and that one is dead and the other, lying in a critical condition and will die.

At about the same time another fire started on the south side of the track, burning everything clean from Lake Side to the Blue river. At this time the fire is largely confined to the isolated districts of Sheridan, Grant, Thomas and Curry counties. Little information is obtainable of the fires south of Lake Side. The fire is in one direction and then another, but the loss is known to be heavy. The fatalities known are as follows, though many unverified rumors declare that many ranchmen were lost:

L. Leichter, ranchman, caught by the flames while trying to save his horse. He was killed. He was killed. He was killed.

WIND SIXTY MILES AN HOUR.

In Sheridan county the fire has burned a section of country over forty miles in width and is still burning. Thousands of tons of hay have been burned, leaving cattlemen destitute. The houses and stock of two men were burned and the crop range is desolate. It will require thousands of dollars to repair the great damage of the fire. Nothing like the ruin has happened for years.

At Bedford, ten miles south, citizens were out until a late hour last night battling fire and smoke and at this time the loss is considered safe unless the fire spreads far north of the writhing burned over country. The wind is blowing at the rate of sixty miles an hour and grass leaves of fire are everywhere, so far no loss of life is reported in that locality, but loss of range will be great to stockmen.

FLED TO THE WATER COURSES.

Hundreds of thousands of head of cattle are grazing in Cherry, Thomas, Grant and other counties where these fires are raging. These cattle were sent there from the southern part of the state, where the effect has been felt so heavily and were taken to the northern counties to graze for the winter. It is feared a large portion of these cattle have perished in the flames. It is almost impossible to get any definite information concerning the fires as they are at such distances from the railroad stations.

The loss to the farmers and stock raisers will be enormous. The loss will be enormous. The loss will be enormous.

On the heels of the drought, the situation will be particularly bad to bear this winter. It will be several days before any definite details of the loss of life and property will be known, since those who have fled from their homes to the water courses to avoid the flames will not leave them while the fires are being constantly stirred by the high wind.

STANDS A GOOD SHOW.

Total Error Claimed in the Proceedings Against Genoa.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 25.—A news dispatch was received here from Washington stating as a fact that Colonel Genoa, the Salvadoran refugee, who is now in jail in Oakland awaiting final action on the proceedings for his extradition to stand trial for the murder of a man, was not returned to San Salvador on account of a fatal error in the proceedings. It was stated that United States District Judge Morrow had Genoa for attempted murder, while the charge on which San Salvador sought his extradition was actual murder. An investigation of the records of the case and review of the proceedings in the proceedings. In one of the complaints filed were Genoa was jointly charged with Mata with the murder of one of our citizens. These charges were dismissed by Judge Morrow, it being shown that the killing was an incident of actual warfare. Genoa was held for extradition, however, on a charge of having attempted to murder Don Andres Amaya, a merchant of San Salvador, and a member of the San Salvador army before the beginning of actual hostilities.

DISGRACED THE SERVICE.

Report of the Court of Inquiry on California State Troops.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 25.—The military court of inquiry which was appointed by Governor Markham to investigate the conduct of the California state troops during the late rebellion strike has made its report. Major General Diamond is held mainly responsible for the breakdown of the troops. The report is a disgrace to the service. The report is a disgrace to the service. The report is a disgrace to the service.

RAN OVER ROCKS.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 25.—W. H. Irving, a ranchman, has been crushed at Windsor on a charge of attempting to wrecking. Last Monday evening a car loaded with passenger loads on the G. & W. road ran over a rock and was crushed. The car was crushed. The car was crushed. The car was crushed.
